Call for Papers

The Idealist Journal

The Idealist is UC Berkeley’s undergraduate philosophy journal. Its purpose is to foster rigorous philosophical discourse while providing an accessible platform for undergraduates to participate in academic publication and debate. We are currently accepting submissions for our Spring 2021 issue. 3-5 papers will be selected for publication. Papers on any philosophical topic are welcome. Please make your submission via our form (https://forms.gle/Jh5UpqAkz19Ygdnw6) by December 1st, 2020.

Paper Length:
Your paper should be double spaced with regular font and no more than 5000 words.

Submission:
Papers on any philosophical topic are welcome. References should conform to The Chicago Manual of Style, seventeenth edition. Footnotes are preferred over endnotes. Do not include any identifying information in the paper.

Abstract:
An abstract of no more than 200 words is required.

Authorship:
Submissions are limited to undergraduate authors (students currently in a program). Papers must be written in English. Only one submission per author. Please inform us if you are submitting the paper to other journals. No previously published papers will be accepted.
