The Department of Philosophy would be grateful for your candid and considered responses to the questions below. Student evaluations are essential to the Department’s efforts to assess and improve the quality of instruction in its courses.

Course: ____________ Instructor: ____________ Semester: ____________
Your major: ______________ Circle your year: fresh soph jr sr grad other

For questions 1–6, circle one number that you believe is most appropriate.

1. How much effort did you put into the course?

   | none | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | ← quite a lot

2. How well organized was the course?

   | not at all | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | ← very

3. How clearly did the instructor explain things?

   | not at all | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | ← very

4. How responsive was the instructor to student questions?

   | not at all | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | ← very

5. How intellectually rewarding did you find the course?

   | not at all | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | ← very

6. Considering both the limitations and possibilities of the subject matter and course, how would you rate the overall teaching effectiveness of this instructor?

   | not at all effective | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | ← very effective

(continued on reverse side)
7. Do you have comments on the design of the course (including the choice of topics, readings, and assignments)?

8. What was most distinctive about the way the instructor taught this course? Was anything the instructor did particularly helpful or unhelpful?

9. Any additional comments?